

GUNMAN CHASED INTO CHURCH BASEMENTHeld on Robbery Charge, With Designs on a Payroll.

An angry gunman was chased yesterday into the basement of the Church of the Epiphany, in East Twenty-third street between Second and Third avenues, and stayed out about an hour, before being taken to the East Twenty-second street station.

The man arrested said he was Lawrence A. Kilroy, 22 years old, of a Bethune street. According to the police he was "hipped off" that Abraham Kaufman, treasurer of the Geller dyeing establishment at 204 to 224 East Twenty-second street, handles a Saturday payroll of $1,800 and decided to make a try for the easy money.

Kaufman told the police he was called at a spring house at 309 Third avenue when Kilroy stopped him in the corridor with a gun and asked for the payroll. Kaufman replied that week there was no payroll.

"Well, I'll take what you've got," the gunman said. He searched Kaufman thoroughly, but all he could find was $1 in cash and a $5 check. Kaufman said Kilroy then flew into a rage, slapped the victim's face, turned and ran. Lieut. Flannery said Kilroy showed his temper all the way to the station house from the church basement, where Kaufman and a crowd of sympathizers had chased him.

Roy Sullivan and his wife of 8 Bethune street and Anna Jennings of Roxbury, Mass., visiting the Sullivan, were arrested later, charged with acting in concert with Kilroy. The Sullivans have been employed in the dyeing establishment it was said.

K. C. SPEAKER FOUND 3 'RED SOULED CITIES'Detroit, Butte, Duluth Stirred by Existing Conditions.

There are three "red souled" cities in the United States, says Peter W. Collins, a K. of C. worker who has just completed a five months' tour of this country and Canada on which in 300 meetings he spoke against Bolshevism and kindred revolutionary movements. "In Detroit, Duluth and Butte," said Mr. Collins in the Hotel Commodore yesterday, "the feeling of dissatisfaction with the existing order of government has risen to a very high pitch."

Mr. Collins covered on his trip all the States except those on the Atlantic seaboard and in the South. Every meeting he held in a large city was crowded with Bolshevik hecklers who asserted that Russia was enjoying the best government in the world to-day.

"Los Angeles is the nuttiest city in the country," remarked Mr. Collins. "It's full of cranks and wild-eyed individuals." Mr. Collins said the most radical cities in Canada were Vancouver, Winnipeg and Toronto.
